Make up quality can be as important as make up application. Our artists use choice pieces from top professional cosmetic lines that have proven to hold up well under pressure. Professional products allow the artist to enhance features of the individual while hiding flaws without over-application. Additionally, our professionals work well with or without direct artistic direction. We specialize in beautiful elegant makeup application. We also offer artists who specialize in the extreme applications.

Let us offer our professional knowledge and experience to work with you on cosmetic colors and application styles to create the exact image you desire.
